

FRIEND

DAN
DEWITT

CATALINA
ECHEVERRI

WHO FORGIVES

A TRUE STORY ABOUT how PETER FAILED and JESUS FORGAVE ♥

A long time ago there was a man named Peter who was best friends with Jesus.

Peter was a fisherman.
He was strong and brave. But...

He often said the wrong thing.
Do you ever talk before you think?
That's what Peter did—again, and again, and again.

Peter loved fish! In fact, one day he and Jesus had fish for breakfast.

Fish for breakfast???

...That's weird!

But we will save that part of the story until the end.

On the day when Jesus first called Peter to follow him, can you guess what Peter was doing?

That's right.
Peter was fishing.

“Follow me, and I will make you a fisher of men,”
Jesus told him.

Can you imagine that? Peter fishing for men?

Jesus explained that, just as Peter liked to search for fish, Jesus had come to search for people who needed forgiveness.

